LOCAL MATTERS.

HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

GATHERED BY OUR REPORTERS.

Regular Meeting of the City Fathers' Further Action in Reference to the Roanoke and Southern Railroad. A New Ordinance Adopted.

City council met last night pursuant to adjournment, with Hon. H. S. Trout in the chair, and the following members present: Messrs. Buckner, Hanthorn, Scott, McConnell, Woodward, Ruggie, Sheehan, McCann and Graves.

Permission was granted the Virginia Brewing company to build a sidewalk from the Norfolk and Western track to their property at corner of Norfolk Avenue and Wise street.

The message of Mayor Carr in relation to officers Morris and Trout was read and discussed at considerable length, and on the question as to its acceptance being put it was rejected, as it required a two-thirds vote of all members of the council.

Mr. Buckner offered a resolution asking that the city solicitor be instructed to prepare a statute authorizing the city to increase its indebtedness at any time to not more than fifty per cent. of its taxable values. Adopted, Ayes, 10.

On motion of Mr. McConnell, the former ordinance in reference to the Roanoke and Southern railroad was repealed and the new ordinance adopted. The ordinance requires the railroad company to begin work a mile from Roanoke within ninety days from the time the subscription is voted, and the road is to enter the city and the terminal facilities selected within six months.

The ordinances for bridges, for the hospital and city buildings were repealed and readopted for the election February 18th.

The public property committee was instructed to purchase a chair for the judge of the Hastings court.

Mr. Sheehan moved that the petition of Friendship fire company, asking for an enlargement of their present quarters, be referred to the fire and water committee with power to act. Motion was carried, ayes, 10.

City Solicitor Gibson was requested to have the boundary amendment to the charter passed by the legislature. Mr. Scott moved to reconsider the motion rejecting the mayor's message. Carried. He also moved to refer the whole matter to the next meeting of the council.

Mr. Woodward moved to amend the motion by postponing the investigation to a special meeting to be called by the president for that purpose. It was so ordered.

The finance committee was instructed to purchase five maps of Roanoke from G. W. Baist.

An ordinance was passed prohibiting cows from running at large at night, which takes effect February 1st.

Dr. G. S. Luck sent in his resignation from the board of health which was accepted. Another vacancy occurred owing to Dr. Cooper having left the city. The filling of these vacancies was referred to the health committee to recommend and report to the council.

Several petitions of minor importance were granted and referred to the appropriate committees.

A Wonderful Attraction. "He She, Him and Her," the comedy success of the year, one of the greatest attractions offered at the opera house, will be played on the 16th inst. The New York World in speaking of the comedy says:

Theatre-goers who enjoy wildly hilarious extravagance will find a very good sample of the same at the People's theatre this week. He, She, Him and Her is the name of it, and it opened last night to a well-filled house, that showed by its liberal applause and frequent encores that it thoroughly enjoyed the performance. George H. Adams as Toby is acrobatically clever and quietly humorous. Tom Hanlon, a rough soubrette of excellent quality, sang a number of familiar songs, looked pretty, and exhibited a number of graceful dancing steps. The company was above the average.

Stockholders Meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the National Exchange Bank held yesterday morning, the following board of directors was elected for the ensuing year: T. T. Fishburne, J. T. Engleby, R. H. Fishburne, Thomas Engleby, John W. Woods, J. M. Harris, W. P. Moomaw, Lee H. Simmons, J. B. Andrews, J. P. Bell, and T. E. Murrell. Immediately after their election the board of directors held a meeting and elected the following officers: T. T. Fishburne, president; Joseph T. Engleby, vice president; J. B. Fishburne, cashier; B. Rust, teller; W. R. Engleby, bookkeeper. The report of the president for the past year was read and showed the bank to be in a very flourishing condition.

Members to be Initiated.

Mr. N. Ezekiel arrived in the city yesterday evening in company with Major Alexander Hart of Staunton, who will assist him in the initiation of about twenty charter members of the Royal Arcanum. Those who are to be initiated are requested to assemble at the lodge promptly at 7:30 p. m.

A Fine View.

Mr. Charles Fox visited Vinton yesterday and while on a knoll about a mile east of that place, looked upon seven counties as follows: Bedford, Botetourt, Floyd, Franklin, Craig, Roanoke and Montgomery. Very few cities in this state are near so many counties as Roanoke.

All persons indebted to J. A. Fishburne & Son are hereby notified to call at Fishburne, Jones & Company and settle by the 25th of January. If not paid by that time the accounts will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

LYNCHBURG'S VOTE.

A "Wet" Majority of Seven.—The Color Line Broken. Special to the TIMES. LYNCHBURG, Va., January 14. The local option fight resulted in a majority for the "Wets" of seven. The white and colored vote was divided about equally.

CIRCULAR TO AGENTS.

Stations and Agencies on the Clinch Valley Railroad.

Colonel A. Pope, general freight agent of the Norfolk and Western railroad company, has issued the following circular to agents and conductors concerning the operating of additional stations on the Clinch Valley division of that road, and the establishing of agents thereat:

"In addition to the stations opened to traffic on said division, as recited in circular No. 19, K, of October 1st, 1898, and given in the local distance tables and freight tariffs of this company, the following additional stations will be opened for the handling of traffic on and after January 12th, 1899, the distances between which and the terminal, junction, or local points on the Norfolk and Western Railroad are as per the table of distances dated August 15th, 1898, incorporated in the local freight tariff.

The stations in Virginia are Max well, Pounding Mill, Cedar Bluff, Richlands, Sword's Creek and Roanoke. Agents will be located at all stations except Maxwell and Richlands, as indicated above, and freight can be received and forwarded for delivery at said stations, without requiring prepayment.

"The company's current local mileage freight tariff will apply on all freight traffic between the stations as named, and all points on the Clinch Valley extension, main line or other branches of the road, subject to the local freight classification, now current. Through rates will be published between said Clinch Valley division stations and the Eastern cities or Western cities and other points beyond the line of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, as the necessities of the traffic require."

New Advertisements.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of W. W. E. Entler, the photographer, number 23 Salem Avenue. Those wanting a correct picture for themselves or their sweethearts would do well to give him a call. He is an experienced artist, having had many years' experience, and guarantees his work.

Read the notice of the Brooklyn Life Insurance company in the want column. Mr. T. F. Jamison will be here on the 17th with some fine mules and horses. Read his advertisement. Read the advertisement of Mr. G. L. Stevens, the auctioneer. He is going to sell the entire stock of goods belonging to W. F. Baker & Co., on Salem Avenue.

Approaching Marriage. Cards of invitation have been issued to the marriage of Mr. J. T. Hall, of the Roanoke TIMES, to Miss Susan Harris, of Jacksonville, Va. The interesting event will take place on the 6th of next month, at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. K. Harris, in Jacksonville. Mr. Hall is an energetic and successful young business man, and has a host of friends in this city, who will be pleased to learn of his approaching good future.

Hastings Court.

The case of W. E. Kefauver, on motion of commonwealth's attorney, Smith, was nolle prossed and the prisoner discharged. In the case of Mary Campbell, charged with assault to kill, the prisoner pleaded not guilty, and the case was continued till the next term.

Will Make Roanoke This Home.

Mrs. J. B. Clewning, of this city, is in Bedford, where she will attend the marriage today of her brother, Mr. George Fitzpatrick, to Miss Adams, of that county. The bride and groom will make Roanoke their home after the 17th of January, and will board at the Earl house, on Salem Avenue.

Fire.

The Salem Fire company was called out yesterday morning at 7 o'clock by the burning of a chimney at the residence of Mrs. Huff, in that city. The fire was easily extinguished.
